I have been provided with and have read the Rules and Regulations of CommonGround Golf Course and agree to abide by the terms and conditions. I also understand that I am purchasing an Annual Pass and not a "membership". My Annual Pass will automatically renew on my Anniversary Date unless written notice is provided to CommonGround no less than 7 days in advance of my Anniversary Date.

Payment Default:

If the Annual Pass Holder fails to pay any amount when due under the agreement, CommonGround Golf Course shall be entitled, at any time in its sole discretion to suspend or cancel the Annual Pass Holder's privileges and to require the Annual Pass Holder to immediately pay all past due balances, and to accelerate all future Annual Pass dues. Suspension or cancellation shall not relieve the Annual Pass Holder from the obligation to pay all unpaid balances. Any payments owed to CommonGround Golf Course that are not received when due shall bear interest at the highest interest rate permitted by law. If the Annual Pass Holder fails to pay CommonGround Golf Course when due, the Annual Pass Holder shall pay all costs and expenses of collection including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by CommonGround Golf Course.

Miscellaneous:

This Agreement shall be governed by the internal laws of the State of Colorado. RULES AND REGULATIONS

These Rules and Regulations have been established by CommonGround Golf Course to protect the Course Facilities and to promote the health, safety, welfare, and enjoyment of the Passholders, their families, guests and all other persons using the Course Facilities. CommonGround Golf Course may amend these Rules and Regulations at any time.

GENERAL PASSHOLDER RULES

1. Passholders, their families and their guests shall abide by all rules, policies and regulations of CommonGround Golf Course as they may be amended at any time.
2. Passholders shall not use the roster list of the Passholders at CommonGround Golf Course for solicitation or commercial purposes.
3. Any complaints, criticisms, or suggestions of any kind relating to any of the operations of the Course or its associates, must be addressed to the MOD (Manager on Duty) or may be in writing, signed, and addressed to the General Manager. Email is the preferred form of initial communication.
4. Smoking is not permitted in any enclosed areas on the course property.

ANNUAL PASSHOLDER RENEWALS

1. As an Annual Passholder at CommonGround Golf Course, we are assuming that you are planning to be with us each year. We will automatically renew your annual pass on your anniversary date each year. If you are not planning on renewing your annual pass, we must have written notice seven days prior to your anniversary date. Failure to do so will result in an automatic charge of an annual pass to the credit card number provided in the Annual Pass Application. The Passholder authorizes the Course to charge dues, fees, or other charges to the credit card number provided by the Passholder.
2. If CommonGround ever institutes a monthly payment plan, Annual Passholders who are on a monthly payment plan authorize the Course to charge the monthly dues, fees, or any other charges on the 1st of every month to the credit card listed on the Annual Pass Application. Failure to pay 12 consecutive months of the monthly payment will result in the outstanding balance of the pass plus a $250.00 early termination fee to be immediately charged to the credit card on file.

CONTACT INFORMATION

1. Each Passholder shall be responsible for filing with the Manager on Duty, in writing, his or her contact information and any changes thereto where the Passholder wishes all correspondence from the Course to be sent.
2. The Manager on Duty must be notified in writing of any change of contact information. Failure to do so shall constitute a waiver of the right to receive CommonGround notices, e-mails, and other communications. Email is the primary contact vehicle that CommonGround uses.

DISCIPLINE

1. Passholders are responsible for their own conduct and for the conduct of their family and guests. Any Passholder whose conduct or whose family's or guest's conduct is deemed by CommonGround Golf Course to likely endanger the welfare, safety, harmony, or good reputation of the Course or its patrons, or is otherwise improper, may be reprimanded, fined, suspended, or expelled from the Course and have all privileges associated with the Pass suspended or terminated by the Course. The Course shall also be the sole judge of what constitutes improper conduct, but improper conduct may include any of the following: failure to meet eligibility for being a Passholder, submitting false information on the Pass Application, allowing his or her ID card to be used by another person, failing to pay any of the amount owed to the CommonGround Golf Course in a proper and timely manner, failing to abide by the Rules and Regulations as established by the Course from time to time, abusing Course personnel or associates, acting in a manner incompatible with the standard of conduct which would likely injure the reputation of the Passholders of CommonGround Golf Course.
2. CommonGround Golf Course reserves the right to restrict or suspend some or all of a Passholder's, Members, their family's and or guest's Course privileges. No Passholder may, on account of any restriction or suspension, be entitled to any refund of Annual Passholder annual or monthly fees, or any other fees.
3. Reinstatement of a Pass will be at the sole discretion of the General Manager and the Executive Committee.

LOSS OR DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY OR INSTANCES OF PERSONAL INJURY

1. Each Passholder, as a condition of his/her Pass, and each guest, as a condition of invitation to the Course Facilities, assume sole responsibility for his or her property. CommonGround Golf Course shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to any private property used or stored on the Course Facilities.
2. Every Passholder of the Course is responsible for his or her own well being as well as the well being of all guests while using the Course facilities. Any action resulting in personal injury shall not be the responsibility of the Course for any reason.
